- Jesus responds, predicting Peter's denial: "Truly I tell you, today?yes, tonight?before the rooster crows twice, you yourself will disown me three times" (Mark 14:30-31).

This exchange underscores Peter's confidence but also reveals a disconnect between his self-assuredness and the impending reality.

- Analysis: This initial denial is driven by fear and confusion. Peter's instinct is self-preservation, and his response is a reflexive denial of association to avoid potential repercussions.
