Legal Landscape of Pornography in India and Kerala

India's legal stance on pornography is stringent, with the Information Technology Act (2000) and the Indian Penal Code (IPC) criminalizing the production, distribution, and possession of obscene material. Kerala, like other states, adheres to these laws, though enforcement varies. Despite the legal restrictions, underground networks continue to operate, often exploiting technological gaps.

Societal Attitudes Toward Adult Content

Nonetheless, rapid urbanization, increasing internet penetration, and changing youth perspectives have led to a gradual shift in attitudes. This dichotomy fuels the clandestine circulation of adult content, including "blue films," which often operate in the shadows due to societal taboos.

Emergence of Clandestine Content in Hotels

The combination of technological accessibility and societal restrictions has made hotels vulnerable to unauthorized recordings. Reports of such incidents have increased with the proliferation of smartphones equipped with high-definition cameras. These recordings are sometimes used for blackmail or as a form of revenge, adding a layer of social concern.

Mechanisms and Methods of Production and Circulation

How Are These Films Recorded?

- Smartphones: The most common tool, often hidden in clothing or toiletries.
- Spy Cameras: Small, discreet cameras placed strategically in bathrooms, bedrooms, or public areas.
- Remote-Controlled Devices: Some actors or perpetrators use remote-controlled gadgets to trigger recording without detection.

Popular Techniques and Tactics
