Distribute the letter well in advance of the break—preferably 2-3 weeks prior—to allow students and families to plan accordingly.

3. Utilize Multiple Channels

Beyond physical or email distribution, consider posting the letter on institutional websites, social media platforms, and student portals to maximize reach.

4. Incorporate Visual Aids and Highlights

Use bullet points, bold headings, and highlighted dates to improve readability and emphasize key information.

5. Personalize and Contextualize

Where feasible, tailor messages to specific student groups or academic levels, and include relevant updates or reminders.

6. Solicit Feedback and Clarify Doubts

Encourage recipients to reach out with questions, and provide clear contact points for assistance.
