Brief Plot Summary

The story begins with a young American man, sitting in a seaside hotel in Florida, engaging in conversation with an older, charismatic man who is known for his poker skills. The older man, a veteran gambler, boasts about his ability to win any bet, no matter how risky. He challenges the young man to a game of chance involving a sinister bet: if the young man can withstand the older man's test and win, he will walk away with a substantial sum of money; if he loses, he must give up his car and his watch.

The bet involves the older man placing his own wedding ring and a small piece of paper on his finger, which the young man is to hold securely. The older man then offers to set the ring on fire, betting that the young man will not be able to resist removing his finger from the ring until the fire is extinguished.
