The Traditional Significance of the Choti

The choti, or braid, has historically been an integral part of South Asian beauty standards, including in Bangladesh. The process of braiding often involved intricate styles and was associated with auspicious occasions like festivals, weddings, and religious ceremonies.

In Bangladesh, the choti also served as a marker of social status and age. For young girls, a simple, clean braid was common, while married women often styled their hair differently, sometimes adorned with flowers or jewelry.
