The Evolution of Ueshiba's Budo

From Daito-ryu to Aikido

Ueshiba studied under Sokaku Takeda, master of Daito-ryu Aiki-jujutsu, adopting many of its techniques and principles. Over time, he refined and adapted these methods, infusing them with his spiritual insights to develop Aikido—a martial art emphasizing harmony over conflict.

The Different Phases of Ueshiba's Teaching

- Early Period (1920s-1930s): Focused on martial effectiveness, borrowing heavily from Daito-ryu.
- Middle Period (1940s-1950s): Integration of spiritual teachings, emphasizing harmony and peace.
- Later Period (Post-1950s): Art as a spiritual practice accessible to all, with less emphasis on combat and more on spiritual growth.
