The Transition from Middle English to Early Modern English

The linguistic landscape of England during the transition from Middle to Early Modern English was marked by significant changes in pronunciation, vocabulary, and syntax. While Middle English (roughly 1150–1500) was heavily influenced by Norman French and Latin, Early Modern English (approximately 1500–1700) saw the stabilization of grammatical structures and the expansion of vocabulary, largely driven by the Renaissance.

Key features of this transition include:
