An acrostic poem is a type of poetry in which the first letter (or sometimes other positions) of each line spells out a word, phrase, or message when read vertically. This structural device enhances the poem's meaning, making it both a creative and mnemonic tool.

Key features of acrostic poems include:

- A central word or phrase (the "acrostic" word)
- Lines arranged so that the initial letters align with the letters of the central word
- Thematic cohesion that reflects or complements the acrostic word

For example, a simple acrostic poem spelling out "GRATITUDE" might have each line beginning with the respective letter, elaborating on the theme of thankfulness.

Structural Variations and Styles

While the classic acrostic uses initial letters, variations include:

- Reverse acrostic: where the message is spelled out vertically at the end of each line
- Diagonal acrostic: with letters placed along diagonals
- Box acrostic: where the message is embedded within the structure of the poem's shape

The choice of form influences the poem's aesthetic and impact, and for senior-focused acrostics, the traditional format often suffices to emphasize clarity and heartfelt expression.
